Boston Ball Team is Showing Improvement.

AND PHILLIES WILL ALSO

Wind-up of Major League Base Ball Season Is Bringing Out Some Good Base Ball Sport.

Boston, Oct. 4.—The Champs took the second in their series of three games with Cleveland in this city yesterday afternoon and are confident of winning tomorrow's game; also, which if they do will be likely to insure to them fourth place in the American league.

In the first two innings neither side scored and in the first of the third Cleveland went out in one, two, three, order, but not so with the home team. Armbruster got a pass to first, Barry sent an easy one to third and Armbruster went to third on a passed ball. Parent got a safe whack at the ball, scoring Armbruster. Donohue hit Stahl with a swift inshoot, and Unglaub walked, filling the bases. Then amidst a great cheering from about 2,500 throats Burdett smashed a terrific liner, securing third base himself and scoring Parent, Stahl and Unglaub. Grimsbaw died to Hess and Burdett scored. Selback fouled to Bradley, five runs. In the fourth neither team scored, but Boston lost a good man by the umpire's ordering Ferris off the field for disputing his decisions.

In the fifth Hess got a two-bagger for Cleveland, Clark fanned, Donohue was tossed out by Unglaub and Bay walked. Congalton sent a slow grounder down the third base line and Hess scored. Boston made no runs this inning. In the sixth Cleveland added one score, on an error by Stahl, Turner went the rounds of the bases.

In the eighth, with a man on second and another on third Clark doubled to right field scoring Bradley and Turner, adding two more to the Indians' credit. But Boston matched them in the last half by Unglaub and Burdett scoring on Selback's double. In the ninth the score was not changed by Cleveland and Boston didn't take their half.

RUTLAND OPPOSES ORDER.

Objects to Semaphore System at Street Railway Crossings.

Montpelier, Oct. 4.—The proposed hearing before the board of railroad commissioners at the state house yesterday to see whether the steam railroads should be required to obey the electric semaphore signals established by street railways at points where the two roads cross at grade, ended in no hearing.

The Rutland Railroad Co., through its attorney, H. H. Powers of Morrisville, withdrew its protest against the installation of these signals demanded by the commission and also removed its application for a modification of the order.

It was stated that the Rutland company will resist an effort to carry out the order of the commission and will stand on its legal rights.

Representatives of the Central Vermont, St. Johnsbury and Lake Champlain, Boston & Maine, and Montpelier & Wells River companies were present, but took no part. Representatives of the electric railroads were also present.

The stand taken by the Rutland was due to an order issued by the commission requiring the Rutland Street Railway Co. to install semaphores like those used on the Central Vermont and Montpelier & Wells River crossings. Complaint is made that the order has been disregarded.

The commissioners did not state what action they would take. The merits of a new signal device were discussed at yesterday's meeting.

AFTER LIFE MEN.

Attorney for Policy-holders Wants to Begin Suit.

New York, Oct. 4.—Permission to begin suit against John A. McCall, president, and George W. Perkins, vice president, of the New York Life Insurance company, for the restitution of $150,000 contributed to Republican campaign funds, was asked of Atty.-Gen. Mayer yesterday by William Hepburn Russell, acting as attorney for several policy-holders.

Under the laws of this state the sanction of the attorney-general is required in order to bring a suit of this character. Mr. Russell said the suit would be based on the contention that the money paid the national Republican committee was expended by McCall and Perkins without corporate authority.

Mr. Russell said he intended to sue for the restitution of $235,000, which, Mr. McCall testified, had been placed in the hands of Andrew Hamilton of Albany.

The policy-holders represented by Mr. Russell are Walter Goodyear, Lemuel D. Lilly and William B. Winslow.

MILLIONS RUINED.

Financial Loss to Hemp Crop by the Philippines Typhoon.

Manila, Oct. 4.—The estimated loss in the hemp growing districts from the ravages of the recent typhoon is $5,000,000 in gold. The hemp in warehouses ready for shipment is also a total loss. The plantations are impaired to such an extent that it will take a year to get them in condition again. Reports now coming in from the south indicate a greater loss of life at property than was first estimated.

On Ticao island the beach is strewn with dead bodies, among them those of some Americans in such a condition as to be unrecognizable.

FIRST ELECTION.

Russia Will Elect Members of National Assembly Soon.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 4.—An imperial decree was published yesterday directing that immediate arrangements be made to conduct elections of members of the National Assembly. The regulations for the conduct of the elections were also published yesterday in the Official Messenger.

35,000 STRIKERS IN BERLIN.

Men of Two More Factories Join Electrical Tie-Up.

Berlin, Oct. 4.—The strike of the electrical workers has extended to two more factories. The total number of men now out is 35,000 but no disturbances have occurred.

Enough employees have been obtained to supply a current sufficient to keep two thirds of the street cars going.

FIFTY PER CENT. DEFECTIVE.

Half of Burlington Pupils Have Trouble with Their Eyes.

Burlington, Oct. 4.—A test of the eyes and ears of the pupils of the public schools according to the provisions of a law enacted by the last legislature, shows that fifty per cent. had some eye defect. A small per cent. of ear trouble was found.

HAD A HARD TIME.

Man, Switched Off in Montpelier, Wanted to Reach Barre.

A Swede, whose name apparently was John Jalgopson, had a hard time in getting to Barre when he struck Montpelier. He registered at the Union House Monday night. He was later found in a doxy condition, back of George Stratton's house on the road leading to Hubbard Park, minus $55.

FOUNDING OF MONTPELIER

Timothy Bigelow is Called the Real Founder.

FRIZZEL FIRST SETTLER.

And Col. Jacob Davis the First Permanent Settler, as He Hewed Out the First Home in the Wilderness.

Montpelier was founded, according to the Lawrence genealogy, by Timothy Bigelow, he being the first to organize the land company and petition the legislature for a charter. Joel Frizzel was probably the first settler, but he has to divide honors with Jacob Davis, who is called the first "permanent settler." Col. Davis was born in Oxford, afterwards Charlton, Mass., in 1739. It was in 1780 that he first turned his face toward Vermont. Armed with an axe he came to the wooded valley where Montpelier now stands. On May 3, 1787, he laid his axe into the first tree on the Worcester Branch and the Winoski.

The night before, Col. Davis, his cousin, and a hired man spent at Middlesex with Seth Putnam. They were tired out by the difficult journey from Berlin, Pond and thus down to the Dog river. Ten days after, the log house, 32 by 16 feet, was erected. That house, which was really little more than a hut, was the beginning of Montpelier. Col. Davis, with his two sons, Jacob and Thomas, planted and raised their first crop, having transformed 50 acres of maple forests into meadow land. Late in December of the same year, the women of the family came to the wilderness home, and it was then a home, indeed. So much for the founding of the city.

Montpelier's original area was cut down by the separation of 18,670 acres when East Montpelier was set apart in 1848. But the annexation of "Berlin Side" within a few years, has helped to make up for the loss then suffered. In 1791 the population was 113. In 1800 it was 890. Today it is 7,313.

The gain in recent years in population is shown by the subjoined extracts from the census taken the present year:

Population, 7,313.

A gain in five years of 1,047, or 17 per cent.

A gain in ten years of 2,401, or 49 per cent.

A gain in 15 years of 3,078, or 71 per cent.

A gain in 25 years of 4,076, or 125 per cent.

The city has grown cosmopolitan, 19 nationalities being represented, as follows: Foreign, 3,197; mixed, 503; American, 3,613. Of the foreign, the Irish predominate, with 1,139, and the French are a close second, with 1,063.

Not only has the city grown in its number of souls, but it has also grown in its material wealth. Montpelier in 1800 was a strictly agricultural community. What the people produced brought little; what they imported cost more. Still, there was a steady progress towards wealth.

The grand list was $2,142 in 1792. In twelve years it increased to $15,391, a true gain of $13,249 over the period. An ox could be bought for $40, a good horse for $50 and the best cow for $25, while loaf sugar cost 42 cents per pound, tea $2 per pound, nutmegs 12 cents each and ordinary shovels $1.50 each.

The subjoined comparison of property valuation for the last decade is a striking example of the progress made in the wealth of the city.

Total valuation from which grand list of 1905 was made, $5,659,817; gain of $1,906,604. Valuation of real estate, $3,459,000; gain of $1,101,450. Personal property, $1,896,415; gain of $578,152. Polls, including exemptions, 2,228; gain of 774. Total number of taxpayers, 3,774.

Periodic Pains.

Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills are a most remarkable remedy for the relief of periodic pains, backache, nervous or sick headache, or any of the distressing aches and pains that cause women so much suffering.

As pain is weakening, and leaves the system in an exhausted condition, it is wrong to suffer a moment longer than necessary, and you should take the Anti-Pain Pills on first indication of an attack.

If taken as directed you may have entire confidence in their effectiveness, as well as in the fact that they will leave no disagreeable after-effects.

They contain no morphine, opium, chloral, cocaine or other dangerous drugs.

"For a long time I have suffered greatly with spells of backache, that came almost more than I can endure. These attacks come on every month, and last two or three days. I have never been able to get anything that would give me much relief until I began the use of Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills, and they always relieve me in a short time. My sister, who suffers the same way, has used them with the same results." MRS. PARK, 721 S. Michigan St., South Bend, Ind.

Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills are sold by your druggist, who will guarantee that the first package will benefit. If it fails he will return your money. 25 doses, 25 cents. Never sold in bulk. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind.

220; gain of 1,142. Number of real estate owners, 1,021; gain of 356. Number of pieces of real estate as appraised, 1,665; gain of 607. Number of buildings used exclusively for residential purposes, 1,085; gain of 383.

THE THREE HOMES OF STATE GOVERNMENT

First Was "Whittled Out of Use," the Second Was Destroyed by Fire, and the Third Still Remains on State Street.

There have been three homes of the state government in Montpelier. The legislature made that city the capital on two conditions: (first) if Montpelier should give the land for the Capitol building and erect the structure by September, 1808, and (second) if a future legislature should cease to hold its session in Montpelier the state should pay Montpelier what it had expended.

Under those conditions the citizens of Montpelier went to work. Thomas Davis gave a lot of land. The State House was put up at a cost of between $8,000 and $9,000. It was located a few rods southeast of the present location. It was of wood, three stories high, and made ten-cornered in shape. A bell tower surmounted the center. The Executive Council Chamber was in the southeast corner of the third floor, in front of "Jefferson Hall." There the Governor presided, with the Lieutenant Governor and the twelve Councilors. The House of Representatives hall was in the north end of the first floor. This old house was soon "whittled out of use."

On November 8, 1832, the need for a new building being most apparent, the legislature made provision for erecting a new building on the condition that the inhabitants of Montpelier "shall give good and sufficient security, by January 1, following, to pay into the treasury of this State the sum of fifteen thousand dollars—one-half to be paid in one year and the remainder in two years from the passage of this act." Montpelier did even more than that, putting in an extra $3,000 for the purchase of land. The site of the new building was about 250 feet northwest of the old site. The erection was started in 1833 and completed five and one-half years later, at a cost of $132,077.23. The exterior walls were granite, lined with brick.

The house was first occupied in October, 1836. It was used for 21 years. On the evening of January 5, 1857, the building took fire under the Representatives Hall and was destroyed. A special session of the legislature, convened on the 17th of February, 1857, after nine days' deliberation, voted $40,000 for rebuilding the State House, provided:

"The inhabitants of Montpelier, or any individuals, shall, before the rising of this legislature, give good and sufficient security to the treasurer of this State, to pay into the treasury of the State a sum equal to the whole cost of the work, mentioned in the first section of this act, one-half of said sum to be paid in one year and the remainder in two years from the passage of this act, or on the completion of the work."

On November 10 of the same year the legislature appropriated $30,000 additional. In August, 1858, it became evident that the state's appropriation would not permit the covering of the roof or the protecting of the walls during the winter. So Montpelier went ahead of its own accord and paid $10,000 for the work. In 1858 the legislature refused to make any appropriation, leaving the work at a standstill. Then some Montpelier citizens subscribed to a fund of $53,000, out of which, after paying interest and expenses of discounting the paper, the superintendent of construction was assured of about $40,000 for the completion of the house. This structure is now the home of the Vermont state government.
